Beyond stories, this effort also serves as a memorial for family and friends no longer with us. The publication date is also special as 2019 marks the 100th Anniversary of the graduation of Allan Douglas Blackledge from the United States Naval Academy. Over thirty chapters bear testimony to family interactions, military and government service, with many inspirational stories and photographs. Representing decades in the living, and years in the compilation, the work is offered in this pre-publication special offer for those many individuals who have provided their stories and their photos. Thank you for those contributions. Thank you for your service.
