One Sunday Mom's brother Carl came over and told her about an apartment house that was for sale with a land contract and a $2000 down payment, the amount of my Dad's insurance. Uncle Carl would move his family into the larger apt. and Mom and us kids in the other main floor apt. and still have two upstairs that could be rented out. Grandma Stovie thought it was a bad idea, but Mom wanted a place for us that was ours and this seemed like the perfect solution. We lived there for a lot of our lives. It was the anchor we all needed. When Mom married Frank we moved into the larger apt. and both of my younger sister (Connie Jo) and brother (Richard) were born while we lived there. Ken and I went to Sacred Heart High School and graduated from there. Mom and Frank had by then built a house on 44th Ave and Fort St and that was where we lived when both Ken and I graduated from High School in 1955, and 1957. Just a peek at what some of what our lives were like." Our Mom was just "lost;" she didn't think we could live anywhere but St. Edward where Dad is buried. We would be in St. Ed and then back in Omaha. In 1945 there wasn't such a thing as a "Single Mom."
