

Suite Francaise by Irene Nemirovsky- main characters in Part 1

Monsieur Adrien Pericand- curator of national museum

Elder Monsieur Pericand (Louis-Auguste Péricand)- aged father of Adrien, in a wheelchair.

Charlotte- wife of Adrien, mother of five children.

Philippe Péricand- oldest son and priest.

Hubert Péricand- second oldest (age 17)

Bernard (8), Jacqueline (9) and Emmanuel (2) Péricand- younger children.

August- their valet

Madeline- their maid

Maria- their cook

Madame Caquant- mother of Charlotte, owns homestead in Nimes.

Gabriel Corte- wealthy author.

Florence- official mistress of Corte

Monsieur de Furières- bank director with connections

Monsieur Corbin- bank director

Maurice Michaud- bank accountant

Madame Jeane Michaud- his wife and bank secretary to Monsieur Corbin

Jean Marie Michaud- their son, a soldier

Arlette Corail- mistress of Corbin

Charles Langelet- 60 year old aristocratic collector

Aline and baby- fleeing Paris in Citroen

Jules- husband of Aline (in Citroen)

Hortence Gaillard- brother of Jules (in Citroen- has bandaged head). Husband Louis is soldier. Becomes servant of Langelet

Cecille and Madeleine- farm girls